The condominium consists of four (4) buildings containing a total of twenty-four (24) individual Units and common elements as such terms are hereinafter defined.

4.1. The Buildings, as the term is used herein, shall mean and comprise the main structures of the 24 Units as hereinafter defined.

4.2. Unit Boundaries. Each Unit shall include such portions of a building that lie within the boundaries of a Unit, which boundaries are as follows:

(a) Upper and Lower Boundaries. The upper and lower boundaries of a Unit shall be the following extended to an intersection with the perimetrical boundaries: Units are located in the buildings as more fully designated on Exhibit A. The upper boundary of a Unit shall be the plane of the lower surface of the unfinished ceiling of the Unit and the lower boundary shall be the plane of the upper surface of the finished floor slab of the Unit.

(b) Perimetrical Boundaries. The perimetrical boundaries of a Unit shall be the vertical planes of the undecorated, unfinished interior walls extended to intersections with each other and with the upper and lower boundaries. Where there is an aperture in any perimetrical boundary, including, but not limited to, windows and doors, the vertical boundary shall be extended at all such places, at right angles, to the dimension of such apertures, so that the perimetrical boundary at such places shall be coincident with the exterior unfinished surface of such aperture, including the framework thereto. The Association may establish reasonable charges to be paid to the Association for the use of Common Elements not otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws.

ARTICLE 5
Ownership of Units and Appurtenant
Interest in Common Elements

The owner or owners of each Unit shall own, as an appurtenance to the ownership of each said Unit, an undivided interest in the common elements, the undivided interest appurtenant to each said Unit being that which is hereinafter specifically assigned thereto.

The percentage of undivided interest in the common elements assigned to each Unit shall not be changed except with the unanimous consent of all of the owners of all of the Units and their respective mortgagees.

ARTICLE 6
Further Subdividing of Units;
Combination of Units

No Unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller unit or units. Provided, however, in the event two or more adjacent Units are owned by the same Unit Owner, the Unit Owner may elect not to construct, or in the event already constructed, may remove or otherwise alter any party or partitioning wall dividing the owner's Units so as to allow use and occupancy of the adjacent Units as a whole.

Unless a party or partitioning wall has first been installed, or from and after the alteration or partial or whole removal of any common or partitioning wall, no Unit affected shall be conveyed, leased, occupied, or transferred separately from the adjacent Unit which is or, if such wall were constructed, would be also bounded by such party wall or partition unless and until the wall has been constructed or restored at the expense of the Unit Owner to the original location, materials, specifications and character, reflected by the original plans and specifications for the Condominium and Exhibit A attached to this Declaration if shown thereon, and if not shown thereon, then the wall shall be constructed in accordance with plans and specifications submitted to and approved by the Board of Directors. Such construction or restoration shall comply in all respects with applicable governmental and/or construction industry practices, codes, rules, ordinances and regulations, and completion shall be evidenced by an Association Certificate at the direction of the Board of Directors and after inspection and approval of the construction or restoration by the Board of Directors or its agents. In inspecting the construction or restoration, the Board of Directors shall be entitled to retain and consult with, at the Unit Owner's expense, an engineer or Licensed Architect as shall be deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors. In the event of default by Unit Owner of the owner's obligation to restore, or in the event the Association acquires title to any affected commercial Unit, the Association may contract for the restoration of the party or partitioning wall and the costs of doing so shall be assessed against the owner or owners only of such Unit or Units sharing the common boundary to be partitioned on a joint and several basis. Such special assessment shall be collectible in the same manner as any other assessment authorized by this Declaration.

The Board of Directors shall approve or disapprove the Unit Owner's request within thirty (30) days after receipt of all required plans, specifications and information, including required engineer's or Licensed Architect's opinions. The disapproval shall set forth reasons therefor. In the event the Board of Directors neither approves nor disapproves the petition within said time period, said request shall be deemed approved and the owner may proceed in accordance with the plans and specification submitted.

The alteration or removal of the common wall, or the use or occupancy of two or more Units as a single space, as hereinabove described, shall not act to alter, merge or subdivide Units or to change voting rights, percentage ownership of Common Elements or Common Surplus, or to change percentage of responsibility for Common Expenses theretofore allocated to the affected units by this Declaration.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting or preventing ownership of any Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in the common elements by more than one person or entity as tenants in common, joint tenants, or as tenants by the entirety. Nor shall anything herein contained be construed as limiting or preventing the ownership of more than one Unit and appurtenant undivided interests in the common elements by any person or entity.

ARTICLE 7
Limitation Upon Right
Of Owners to Alter and Modify Units

No owner of a Unit shall permit any structural modifications or alterations in such Unit without first obtaining the written consent of the Association which consent may be withheld in the event that a majority of the Board of Directors of said Association determine in their sole discretion that such structural modifications or alterations would adversely affect or in any manner be detrimental to the Condominium in part or in its entirety. No modification or alteration shall be permitted which would cause any increase in any insurance premiums paid by the Association. If the modification or alteration desired by the owner of any Unit involves the removal of any permanent interior partition, the Association shall have the right to permit such removal so long as the permanent interior partition to be removed is not a loadbearing partition, and so long as the removal thereof would in no manner affect or interfere with the provisions of utility services constituting common elements located therein. No owner shall cause any improvements or changes to be made to the exterior of the Unit, including painting or other decoration, or the installation of electrical wiring, television antenna, machines or air conditioning units, which may protrude through the walls or roof of the Condominium, or in any manner change the appearance of any portion of the building not within the walls of such Unit, without the written consent of the Association being first obtained.

ARTICLE 8
Easements

Easements have been reserved through the Condominium Property and are covenants running with the property of the Condominium. These easements shall survive the termination of the condominium.

8.1. Utility Easements. Utility Easements are reserved by the Developer as may be required for Utility Services in order to serve the Condominium and Units. Such easements through a Unit have been installed substantially according to the Plans and Specifications or as the building and improvements have been constructed, unless otherwise approved in writing by the Unit Owner.

8.2. Other Easements. The Condominium Property is subject to easements for encroachments which now exist or hereafter exist caused by shifting, settlement or movement of any improvements upon the Condominium Property or caused by minor inaccuracies in construction, reconstruction, or repair, which encroachments shall be permitted to remain undisturbed. The encroachments shall give rise to an easement for the same and the maintenance thereof, which shall continue until such encroachments may no longer exist.

8.3. Unit Owners. Easements are reserved to Unit Owners and their guests and invitees for (i) pedestrian traffic over, through and across sidewalks, paths, walks, driveways, entrances to buildings and stores, and stairways, as the same may from time to time exist upon the Common Elements and (ii) vehicular traffic over, through and across such portions of the Common Elements as may be designated and intended for such purpose. In no event shall such easements give or create in any Unit Owner or any other person the right to obstruct such easements nor shall any Unit Owner or any other person have the right to park automobiles or other vehicles on any portion of the Condominium Property not designated as a parking area. Any lien encumbering such easements shall automatically be subordinate to the rights of Unit Owners with respect to such easements.

8.4. Easement of Association. The Association shall have an easement for access to all units of the Condominium for ingress and egress as required by its officers, directors, employees and their agents and independent contractors, in order to perform its obligations and duties prescribed in this Declaration. This easement is also reserved for the Developer so long as the Developer owns any unit of the Condominium.

8.5. Developer. The Developer shall have an easement for access to all units of the Condominium for ingress and egress as required to perform its obligations and duties prescribed in this Declaration. The Developer shall also have the right to create, or reserve unto itself, such easements as are necessary to accomplish the purposes referred to in this Declaration.

8.6. Construction, Maintenance. The Developer (including its designees and contractors) shall have the right, in his and their sole discretion from time to time, to enter the Condominium Property and take all other action necessary or convenient for the purpose of completing the construction thereof, or any part thereof, or any Improvements or Units located or to be located thereon, and for repair, replacement and maintenance purposes where the Association fails to do so, provided such activity does not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the use or enjoyment by the Unit Owners of the Condominium Property.

8.7. Sales Activity. For as long as there are any unclosed Units, the Developer and its designees shall have the right to use any such Units and the Common Elements in order to establish, modify, maintain and utilize, as it and they deem appropriate, model units and sales and other offices. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Developer and its designees may show model units and the Common Elements to prospective purchasers and tenants of Units, erect on the Condominium Property signs and other promotional material to advertise Units for sale or lease and take all other action helpful for sales, leases and promotion of the Condominium.

8.8. Additional Easements. The Developer and the Association, on their behalf and on behalf of all Unit Owners (each of whom hereby appoints the Association as his attorney-in-fact for this purpose), shall have the right to grant such additional electric, gas, other utility or service or other easements, or relocate any existing easements or drainage facilities, in any portion of the Condominium Property, and to grant access easements or relocate any existing access easements in any portion of the Condominium Property, as the Association shall deem necessary or desirable for the proper operation and maintenance of the Improvements, or any portion thereof, or for the general health or welfare of the Unit Owners, or for the purpose of carrying out any provisions of this Declaration or otherwise, provided that such easements or the relocation of existing easements will not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the reasonable use of the Units for their intended purposes. The Association, on behalf of itself and all Unit Owners (as such Owners' attorney-in-fact), shall also have the right to transfer title to utility-related equipment, facilities or material to any public utility company or governmental agency which is assuming the obligation to maintain such equipment, facilities or material. In connection with the foregoing, bills of sale may be granted for items of personal property owned or governed by the Association. Furthermore, the Association shall have the authority to take any other action, on behalf of itself and all Unit Owners (as such Owners' Attorney-in-fact), to satisfy the requirements of any public utility company or governmental agency to which any such utility-related equipment, facilities or material are to be so transferred.

8.9. Should the intended creation of any easement fail by reason of the fact that at the time of creation there may be no grantee in being having the capacity to take and hold such easement, then any such grant of easement deemed not to be so created shall nevertheless be considered as having been granted directly to the Association for the purpose of allowing the original party or parties to whom the easements were originally granted the benefit of such easement, and the unit owners designate the Developer and/or Association as their lawful attorney in fact to execute any instrument on their behalf as may hereafter be required or deemed necessary for the purpose of creating such easement.

Phase Condominium

The Condominium may be developed in phases pursuant to the provisions of Section 718.403, Florida Statutes (1983). The first phase (Phase I) of the Condominium will consist of four buildings consisting of 24 Units. The Developer anticipates construction and development of one additional phase, to be known as Phase II. The Developer is not committed to construct Phase II. The description of all anticipated phases, the impact which the completion of subsequent phases, if constructed, will have upon the first phase and the time period within which each phase shall be completed, is hereinafter set forth.

9.1. Real Property Comprising the Condominium. The real property owned by the Developer, which by this Declaration is submitted to the condominium form of ownership as Phase I of the Condominium, is real property lying in Alachua County as more particularly described on the first page of this Declaration and as more particularly described on Exhibit "A-1" attached hereto and made a part hereof. Other real property owned by the Developer which may be submitted to the condominium form of ownership as part of this condominium, as Phase II, is real property situate in Alachua County, more particularly described on Exhibit "A-1" which is attached hereto and made a part hereof. 9.4. Discretion to Add Future Phases. The Developer, in the Developer's sole discretion, will determine whether or not Phase II shall be added to this Condominium. Upon substantial completion of the construction of the improvements of a subsequent phase, if any, to this Condominium, a surveyor shall prepare a survey of the improvements in the phase to be added to this Condominium, and will prepare a surveyor's certificate certifying the facts required by the Florida Condominium Act, as it exists on the date hereof. The survey of the additional lands included in the subsequent phase, if any, the survey of the improvements in the subsequent phase and the surveyor's certificate shall be attached to an amendment or amendments to this Declaration and the same shall be executed solely by the Developer and recorded in the Public Records of Alachua County, together with any exhibits relating thereto as the Developer determines, in the Developer's sole discretion, are necessary. Said amendment need not be executed or consented to by Unit Owners, the Association or Members thereof, or holders of any lien on a condominium unit.

9.5. Completion Dates for Future Phases. Nothing contained in this Declaration shall be construed as requiring the Developer to construct any additional phases to this condominium. If Phase II is added to this condominium, the Developer plans, but is not required, to complete Phase II no later than eight (8) years from the date of this Declaration.

9.6. Time Shares Estates Not Created. Time share estates will not be created with respect to any Units in any phase of the Condominium.

ARTICLE 10
Administration of Condominium by Association

10.1. Association. In order to provide for the efficient administration of the Condominium by the owners of Units, a non-profit organization known and designated as THORNEBROOK VILLAGE MAINTENANCE, INC. (hereinafter referred to as "Association"), has been organized, and said corporation shall administer the operation and management of the Condominium and undertake and perform all acts and duties incident thereto in accordance with the terms, provisions and conditions of this Declaration of Condominium, and in accordance with the terms of the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, its Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Association from time to time. A true copy of said Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws are annexed hereto and expressly made a part hereof as Exhibits "B" and "C", respectively. The owner or owners of each Unit shall automatically become members of the Association upon acquisition of a fee simple interest in a unit, and membership of each owner or owners shall terminate automatically upon such owner or owners being divested of such ownership interest in the title to such Units, regardless of the means by which such ownership may be divested. No person, firm or corporation holding any lien, mortgage or other encumbrance upon any Unit shall be entitled, by virtue of such lien, mortgage or other encumbrance, to membership in the Association, or to any of the rights or privileges of such membership in the Association. In the administration of the operation and management of the Condominium, the Association shall have and is hereby granted the authority and right to levy and collect assessments in the manner hereinafter provided, and to adopt, promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations governing the use of the Units and Common Elements, as a Board of Directors of the Association may deem to be in the best interest of the Condominium.

10.2. Voting. On all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote, there shall be only those votes per Unit as set out in Article 9, notwithstanding the fact that the Unit is owned by more than one person, and such vote or votes may be exercised by the owner or owners of each Unit in such manner as may be provided in the Bylaws hereafter adopted by the Association. Should any owner or owners own more than one Unit, such owner or owners shall be entitled to exercise or cast as many votes as are allocated to the particular units owned, in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

10.3. Membership Registry. The Association shall at all times maintain a register setting forth the names of the owners of all of the Units, and in the event of the sale or transfer of any Unit to a third party, the purchaser or transferee shall notify the Association in writing of his interest in such Unit, together with such recording information as shall be pertinent to identify the instrument by which such purchaser or transferee has acquired his interest in any Unit. Further, the owner of each Unit shall at all times notify the Association of the names of the parties holding any mortgage or mortgages on any Unit, the amount of such mortgage or mortgages, and the recording information which shall be pertinent to identify the mortgage or mortgages. The holder of any mortgage or mortgages upon any Unit may notify the Association of the existence of any mortgage or mortgages held by such party on any Unit, and upon receipt of such notice, the Association shall register in its records all pertinent information pertaining to same.

10.4. Organization and Turnover. As provided in Section 718.301 of the Florida Statutes (1983), prior to, or not more than 60 days after the time that unit owners other than the Developer elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Association, the Developer shall relinquish control of the Association, and the unit owners shall accept control. Simultaneously the Developer shall deliver to the Association all property of the unit owners and of the Association held or controlled by the Developer, including, but not limited to, those items required in Section 718.301 of the Florida Statutes (1983).

ARTICLE 11 Maintenance, Alteration and Improvement

Responsibility for the maintenance of the Condominium Property and restrictions upon its alteration and its improvement shall be as follows:

11.1. Units. All maintenance, repairs and replacements of, in or to any Unit, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary, or extraordinary, including without limitation, maintenance, repair, and replacement of screens, windows, the interior side of the entrance door and all other doors within or affording access to a Unit, shall be performed by the Owner of such Unit at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, except as otherwise expressly provided to the contrary herein, and shall be made in accordance with the original plans and specifications therefor or as otherwise directed by the Association. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, notwithstanding the foregoing, each Unit Owner shall be obligated to maintain at their expense the exterior front entrance to their unit. In addition, each Unit Owner shall be permitted to design and construct or, after initial construction, alter or reconstruct, the front entrance to their unit, said design to be approved by the Board of Directors prior to commencement of the construction, reconstruction or alteration of the front entrance. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair or replacement of the plastered surfaces, dry wall or sheetrock within the Unit or forming the boundaries of the Unit. The foregoing obligation of the Unit Owner shall be performed without disturbing the rights of other Unit Owners.

The portions of a Unit to be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owner at said Owner's expense shall include but not be limited to the following items: air conditioner and air handling equipment for space cooling and heating (including any portions thereof which may be located outside of the boundaries of the Unit), interior fixtures such as electrical and plumbing fixtures that service only their unit; windows, screens, doors, inside paint and other inside wall finishes and floor coverings except the floor slab. Mechanical equipment and installation of such equipment shall be such that its operation will not cause annoyance to the occupants of other Units.

Notwithstanding the responsibility of the Association to maintain and repair those portions of the Condominium Property as set forth in Section 11.2 of this Declaration, if such required maintenance and repair is required because of the negligence or misuse of the Condominium Property or Unit by a Unit Owner, such Unit Owner shall be liable and responsible for the cost and expense of such required maintenance and repair; and such cost of maintenance, repair or reconstruction shall be assessed to the Unit Owner concerned as a special assessment and may be collected and enforced in the same manner as any other assessment provided in this Declaration. Until so collected from the Unit Owner, such costs shall be treated as a Common Expense. In the event that the Unit Owner does not maintain, repair and replace that portion of the Unit required to be maintained, repaired and replaced at the Unit Owner's cost and expense, and such lack of maintenance, repair or replacement has or will have an adverse effect on the Condominium or will cause damage to the Condominium Property or portions of the Condominium to be maintained by the Association, then, and in that event, the Association shall have the right to perform such maintenance, repair and replacement necessary in the Unit, and such cost of maintenance, repair or replacement shall be assessed by the Board of Directors to the Unit Owner concerned as a special assessment and may be collected and enforced in the same manner as any other assessment provided in this Declaration. Until so collected from the Unit Owner, such costs shall be treated as a Common Expense.

Unit Owners shall not paint or otherwise decorate, alter or change the appearance of any portion of the exterior of the building, including the Common Elements except for the front entrance to the Unit as set forth above.

Unit Owners shall promptly report to the Association any defect or need for repair and replacement for which the Association is responsible.

Alteration and Improvement. Except as elsewhere reserved to Developer, neither a Unit Owner nor the Association shall make any alteration to or remove any portion of a Unit that is to be maintained by the Association, or make any additions to Units, or do anything that would jeopardize the safety or soundness of the building, or impair any easement without first obtaining approval in writing of owners of all Units in which such work is to be done and the approval of the Board of Directors. A copy of plans for all such work prepared by a licensed architect shall be filed with the Association prior to the start of the work.

11.2. Common Elements.

(a) By the Association. The maintenance and operation of the Common Elements shall be the responsibility of the Association and the cost thereof shall be a Common Expense.

(b) Alteration and Improvement. There shall be no alteration nor further improvement of the Common Elements or acquisition of additional Common Elements without prior approval either in writing or by vote by the record Unit Owners of not less than 75% of the Common Elements of the Condominium except as provided by the Bylaws. Any such alteration or improvement shall not interfere with the rights of any Unit Owners without their consent. The cost of such work or acquisition shall not be assessed against an Approved Mortgagee that acquires its title as the result of owning a mortgage upon a Unit unless such Approved Mortgagee shall approve the alteration or improvement or acquisition, whether title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor or through foreclosure proceedings. The share of any cost not so assessed shall be assessed to the other Unit Owners in the shares that their shares in the Common Elements bear to each other. There shall be no change in the shares and rights of a Unit Owner in the Common Elements, nor in the Unit Owner's share of Common Expense, whether or not the Unit Owner contributes to the cost of such alteration, improvement or acquisition.

ARTICLE 12 Assessments

The making and collection of assessments against Unit Owners for Common Expenses shall be pursuant to the Bylaws and subject to the following provisions:

12.1. Share of Common Expense. Each Unit Owner shall be liable for a proportionate share of the Common Expenses and shall share in the Common Surplus, but the same shall not vest or create in any Unit Owner the right to withdraw or receive distribution of his share of the Common Surplus. No owner of a unit may exempt himself from liability for his contributions to the Common Expense fund by waiver of his right to use and enjoy any of the Common Elements or by the abandonment of his Unit for which the assessments are made.

12.2. Payments. Assessments and installments thereon must be paid on or before ten (10) days after the day when the same shall become due; all sums not so paid shall bear interest until paid at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum. All payments on account shall be first applied to interest and then to the assessment payment first due. If any installment of an assessment remains unpaid thirty (30) days after the same shall become due, the Board may declare the entire annual assessment as to that delinquent Unit Owner due and payable in full as if the entire amount was originally assessed.

12.3. Lien for Assessments. The Association shall have a lien on each Unit for any unpaid assessments and interest, which lien shall also secure reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Association incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of such lien. Said lien shall be effective from and after the time of recording in the public records of Alachua County, Florida, a claim of lien stating the description of the Unit, the name of the record owner thereof, the amount due and the date when due, and the lien shall continue in effect until all sums secured by the lien shall have been fully paid. Such claims of lien shall be signed and verified by an officer of the Association or by a managing agent of the Association. Upon full payment, the party making payment shall be entitled to a recordable satisfaction of lien. Liens for assessments may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Association in like manner as a foreclosure of a mortgage on real property. In any such foreclosure the owner of the Unit shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the Unit and the Association shall be entitled as a matter of law to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Association may also sue to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments, waiving the lien securing the same. Each unpaid assessment, together with interest, costs and attorney's fees, shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the owner of the Unit at the time the assessment fell due. A lien of the Association for unpaid assessments on any Unit will be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage on that Unit recorded prior to the date the said unpaid assessment becomes due. When an Approved Mortgagee obtains title to the Unit as a result of the foreclosure of the mortgage held by said Mortgagee or as a result of a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure of the Mortgage held by said Mortgagee, such acquirer of title, its successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the share of the Common Expenses or assessments by the Association pertaining to such Unit which became due prior to acquisition of title in the manner above provided, unless such share is secured by a claim of lien for assessments that is recorded prior to the recording of said mortgage; provided, however, such unpaid share of Common Expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be Common Expenses or collectible from all of the Unit Owners including the purchaser at foreclosure, its successors and assigns. Any person who acquires an interest in a Unit, except through a mortgage foreclosure (or by voluntary deed in lieu of foreclosure) as set forth above, shall be liable, jointly and severally, with the grantor for all unpaid assessments up to the time of the transfer of ownership or possession. If a member of the Association exercises his right of first refusal or redemption hereinafter provided, the member shall be liable for the unpaid assessments against the Unit and shall have the right to deduct them from the first refusal or redemption price paid to the seller or transferor.

12.4. Special Assessments. The Board may impose special or individual assessments on Unit Owners to meet expenses not anticipated to be incurred on a regular or annual basis or to cover the cost and expense of maintenance, repairs or replacements of a Unit for which the Unit Owner is responsible as provided in Article 11.

12.5. Developer's Rights. After the commencement date of payment of monthly common expenses, in the event there are unsold units, the Developer retains the right to be the owner of said unsold units; however, for such time as the Developer continues to be a unit owner, but not exceeding such period of time as the Developer shall have guaranteed that the assessment for common expenses of the condominium imposed upon unit owners other than the Developer shall not increase over a stated dollar amount, the Developer shall be required to contribute only such sums to the common expenses of the condominium as incurred and required during that period and which have not been produced by assessments at the guaranteed level receivable from other unit owners, as may be required for the Association to maintain the condominium. In no event shall the Developer be required to contribute to the common expenses as to the units owned by It in any amount exceeding the obligation for such unit as specified and set forth in this Declaration and the exhibits attached hereto. Commencing on the expiration of the period of a guaranteed level of assessments as aforesaid, the Developer shall contribute to the common expenses, as to the units owned by it, in the same manner as all other unit owners. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Developer is the owner of condominium units during the guaranteed period as aforesaid, and if any such unit is leased and occupied by a third party, then the maintenance of said unit shall be contributed and borne by the Developer as all other unit owners. DEVELOPER RESERVES THE RIGHT TO GUARANTEE, UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THIS PARAGRAPH, THE AMOUNT OF THE ASSESSMENTS FOR UNITS IN PHASE 2 FOR A ONE (1) YEAR PERIOD BEGINNING WITH THE DATE THAT PHASE 2 IS ADDED TO THE CONDOMINIUM.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within this Declaration, the Developer shall have the option, in lieu of establishing the guaranteed period as aforesaid, to elect to be excused from the payment of the Developer's share of the common expenses and assessments with respect to each unit owned by the Developer for a period subsequent to the recording of the Declaration of Condominium and terminating not later than the first day of the fourth (4th) calendar month following the month in which the closing of the purchase and sale of the first condominium unit occurs, provided that the Developer shall be obligated to pay that portion of the common expenses incurred during the aforesaid period which exceeds the sum of:

- (a) The amount assessed against other unit owners; and
- (b) The funds collected by the Developer and turned over to the Association to initially fund the Association.

ARTICLE 13
Provisions Relating to Sale or Rental or Other Alienation or mortgaging of Condominium Units

13.1. Sale or Rental of Units. In the event any unit owner wishes to sell, rent or lease his unit, the Association shall have the option to purchase, rent or lease said unit upon the same conditions as are offered by the unit owner to a third person. Any attempt to sell, rent or lease said unit without prior offer to the Association shall be deemed a breach of this Declaration and shall be wholly null and void and shall confer no title or interest whatsoever upon the intended purchaser, tenant or lessee.

Should a unit owner wish to sell, lease or rent his unit he shall, before accepting any offer to purchase, lease or rent his condominium parcel, deliver to the Board of Directors of the Association a written notice containing the terms of the offer he has received or which he wishes to accept, and the name and address of the person(s) to whom the proposed sale, lease or transfer is to be made, and a copy of the proposed lease or a copy of a fully executed Contract for Sale and Purchase, and such other personal and financial information (to be requested within five (5) days from receipt of such notice) as may be required by the Board of Directors of the Association. The Board of Directors of the Association is authorized to waive any or all of the references aforesaid. Said notice may, at the Unit owner's option, contain a demand that the Association furnish a lessee or purchaser in the event the proposed transferee is disapproved.

The Board of Directors of the Association, within ten (10) days after receiving such notice and such supplemental information as is required by the Board of Directors, shall either consent to the transaction specified in said notice, or by written notice to be delivered to the unit owner's unit, (or mailed to the place designated by the unit owner in this notice) designate the Association, or one or more persons then unit owners, or any other person(s) satisfactory to the Board of Directors of the Association, who are willing to purchase, lease or rent, upon the same terms as those specified in the unit owner's notice, or object to the sale, leasing or renting to the prospective purchaser, tenant or lessee, for good cause, which cause need not be set forth in the notice from the Board of Directors to the unit owner. However, the Association shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to the prospective sale, rental or lease.

The stated designee of the Board of Directors shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of the notice sent by the Board of Directors within which to make a binding offer to buy, lease or rent, upon the same terms and conditions specified in the unit owner's notice. Thereupon, the unit owner shall either accept such offer or withdraw and/or reject the offer specified in his notice to the Board of Directors. Failure of the Board of Directors to designate such person(s) or failure of such person(s) to make such offer within the said fourteen (14) day period, or failure of the Board of Directors to object for good cause, shall be deemed consent by the Board of Directors to the transaction specified in the unit owner's notice and the unit owner shall be free to make or accept the offer specified in his notice and sell, lease or rent said interest pursuant thereto to the prospective purchaser or tenant named therein, within ninety (90) days after his notice was given. Unit Owner shall not, if the Association fails or refuses to exercise its right of first refusal, sell said unit to any party other than the party designated in said notice, nor for any lower purchase price, nor on any more favorable terms and conditions, than those originally contained in the required notice presented to the Association, without again giving the Association the right of first refusal to purchase said Unit in the manner above provided.

The consent of the Board of Directors of the Association shall be in recordable form, signed by two officers of the Association and shall be delivered to the purchaser or lessee. The Board of Directors may charge a reasonable fee for the granting of a consent. Should the Board of Directors fail to act as herein set forth, and within the time provided herein, the Board of Directors of the Association shall, nevertheless, thereafter prepare and deliver its written approval, in recordable form as aforesaid, and no conveyance of title or interest whatsoever shall be deemed valid without the consent of the Board of Directors as herein set forth.

The sub-leasing or sub-renting of a unit owner's interest shall be subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the leasing or renting thereof. The Association shall have the right to require that a substantially uniform form of lease or sub-lease be used, and thereafter the Board of Director's approval of the lease or sub-lease form to be used shall be required. No individual rooms may be rented and no transient tenants may be accommodated.

The phrase "sell, rent or lease" in addition to its general definition shall be defined as including the transferring of a unit owner's interest by gift, devise or involuntary or judicial sale.

The foregoing provisions of this Article 13 shall not apply to transfers by a unit owner to any member of his immediate family (viz: - spouse, children or parents).

In the event a unit owner dies and his unit is conveyed or devised to some person other than his spouse, children or parents, or if some other person is designated by the decedent's legal representative to receive the ownership of the unit, or if, under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Florida, the unit descends to some person or persons other than the decedent's spouse, children or parents, the Board of Directors of the Association may, within thirty (30) days of proper evidence of rightful designation served upon the president or any other officer of the Association, express its refusal or acceptance of the individual or individuals so designated as the owner(s) of the condominium parcel.

If the Board of Directors of Association shall consent, ownership of the condominium parcel may be transferred to the person or persons so designated who shall, thereupon, become the owner(s) of the condominium parcel, subject to the provisions of this Declaration.

If, however, the Board of Directors of the Association shall refuse to consent, then the members of the Association shall be given an opportunity within thirty (30) days, commencing upon the expiration of the last above mentioned thirty (30) day period, within which to purchase or to furnish a purchaser for cash of the said unit at the value designated for estate administration purposes. In the event the members of the Association do not exercise the privilege of purchasing or furnishing a purchaser for said unit within such period and upon such terms, the person or persons so designated may then, and only in such event, take title to the unit; or, such person or persons, or the legal representative or the deceased owner may sell the said unit and such sale shall be subject to, in all other respects, the provisions of this Declaration.

13.2. Approval of Corporate Owner. If the proposed purchaser, lessee or transferee of a unit is a corporation or other entity, the approval of the ownership by said entity will be conditioned upon requiring all persons who will be occupants of the unit to be approved by the Association and that the principals of the entity guarantee the performance by the entity and the occupants of the provisions of this Declaration, including the lease if applicable, and execute a certificate to that effect.

13.3. The liability of the unit owner under these covenants shall continue, notwithstanding the fact that he may have leased, rented or sublet said interest as provided herein. Every purchaser, tenant or lessee, shall take title subject to this Declaration and the Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation of the Association as well as the provisions of the Condominium Act.

13.4. Mortgage and Other Alienation of Units.

(a) A unit owner may not mortgage his unit, nor any interest therein, without the approval of the Association, except to an Approved Mortgagee. The approval of any other mortgagee may be upon conditions determined by the Board of Directors of the Association and said approval, if granted, shall be in recordable form, executed by two officers of the Association.

(b) No judicial sale of a unit, nor any interest therein, shall be valid, unless:

(1) The sale is to a purchaser approved by the Association which approval shall be in recordable form, executed by two officers of the Association and delivered to the purchaser; or

(2) The sale is a result of a public sale with open bidding;

(c) Any sale, mortgage or lease which is not authorized pursuant to the terms of the Declaration shall be void unless subsequently approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, and said approval shall have the same effect as though it had been given and filed of record simultaneously with the instrument it approved.

13.5. Special Provisions.

(a) An Approved Mortgagee holding a mortgage on a unit upon becoming the owner of said unit through foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or whosoever shall become the acquirer of title at the foreclosure sale of a mortgage held by an Approved Mortgagee shall have the unqualified right to sell, lease or otherwise transfer said unit, including the fee ownership thereof, and/or to mortgage said parcel, without prior offer to the Board of Directors of the Association and without the prior approval of the said Board of Directors. The provisions of Article 13, Paragraphs 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3 shall be inapplicable to such Approved Mortgagee or acquirer of title, as aforescribed in this paragraph.

(b) The provisions of Paragraphs 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3 of this Article 13 shall be inapplicable to the Developer. The Developer is irrevocably empowered to sell, lease, rent and/or mortgage units, and portions thereof, to any purchaser, lessee or mortgagee approved by him. The Developer shall have the right to transact any business necessary to consummate sales or rentals of units, or portions thereof, including, but not limited to, the right to maintain models, have signs, use the common elements, and to show units. The sales office(s), signs and all items pertaining to sales shall not be considered common elements and shall remain the property of the Developer. The Developer may use a unit(s) as a sales office and/or model unit.

(c) The provisions of Paragraphs 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3 of this Article 13 shall not apply to a transfer from a Unit Owner to a corporation or limited partnership, to one or more individuals, if the individual(s) involved consist of all of the owners or shareholders of said entity.

ARTICLE 14
Use Restrictions

The use of the Condominium shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

14.1. Units. Each Unit shall be occupied only for those purposes permitted under the zoning classification "SC" (Shopping Center District) as defined in the City of Gainesville Zoning Ordinance.

14.2. Common Elements. The Common Elements shall be used only for the purposes for which they are intended and the furnishing of services and facilities for the enjoyment of Unit Owners. Use of the common elements shall be subject to the rules and regulations established by the Association and may be amended from time to time.

14.3. Nuisance. No nuisances shall be allowed upon the Condominium Property, nor shall any use or practice which is the source of annoyance to Unit Owners or which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the Condominium Property by Unit Owners be allowed. The Condominium Property shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and no fire hazard shall be allowed to exist. No Unit Owner shall permit any use of the owner's Unit or make any use of the Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance upon the Condominium Property.

14.4. Lawful Use. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of any part of the Condominium Property and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies which require maintenance, modification or repair of the Condominium Property shall be followed in the same manner as the responsibility for maintenance and repair of the property concerned is set forth in Article 11 of this Declaration.

14.5. Signs. No signs shall be displayed from a Unit or from the Condominium Property except those signs as shall have advance written approval by the Developer or the Association.

14.6. Regulations. The Rules and Regulations concerning the use and appearance of the Condominium Property may be amended by the Association in the manner provided by the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Rules and Regulations may provide for reasonable monetary fines against Unit Owners who violate the Rules and Regulations or the provisions of this Declaration and may further provide for arbitration in the event of a dispute between Unit Owners and the Association concerning such violations. Copies of the Rules and Regulations shall be furnished by the Association to all Unit Owners and occupants of the Condominium on request.

14.7. Developers Use. Until the Developer has closed the sales of all of the Units of the Condominium neither the Unit Owners nor the Association nor the use of the Condominium Property shall interfere with the sale of Units. The Developer may make such use of the unsold Units and Common Elements without charge as may facilitate such sale, including but not limited to maintenance of a sales and administrative office, leases of unsold Units, model units, the showing of the Condominium Property, the display of signs and such other uses which are normally associated with the sale and marketing of real property and Units.

14.8. Parking Spaces. Developer reserves the right to designate one specific parking space for the exclusive use of the tenant and/or owner of Unit 15F.

ARTICLE 15
Insurance

The insurance other than title insurance that shall be carried upon the Condominium Property and the property of the Unit Owners shall be governed by the following paragraphs numbered 15.1 through 15.6.

15.1. Authority to Purchase; Name Insured. All insurance policies upon the Condominium Property shall be purchased by the Association. The named insured shall be the Association individually and as agent for the Unit Owners, without naming them, and as agent for their mortgagees. Provisions shall be made for the issuance of mortgagee endorsements and certificates of insurance to the mortgagees of Unit Owners. Such policies shall provide that payments by the insurer for losses shall be made to the Board of Directors of the Association, and all policies and their endorsements shall be deposited with the Board of Directors. Unit Owners may obtain coverage at their own expense upon their personal property and for their personal liability.

15.2. Coverage.

(a) Casualty. All buildings and improvements upon the Condominium Property shall be insured in an amount equal to the full replacement cost, excluding foundation and excavation costs, and all personal property included in the Common Elements shall be insured for its value, all as shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association. Coverage shall include:

(1) Protection against loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement, and

(2) Protection against such other risks as from time to time shall be customarily covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use as the buildings on the Condominium Property including but not limited to vandalism and malicious mischief, and

(3) The word "building" whenever used in the policy shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to, fixtures, installations or additions comprising that part of the building within the unfurnished interior surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors and ceiling of the individual units initially installed or replacements thereof, in accordance with the original plans and specifications. With respect to the coverage, the unit owners shall be considered additional insureds under the policy.

(b) Public Liability in such amounts and with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Directors of the Association, including, but not limited to, hired automobile and non-owned automobile coverages, and with cross liability endorsements to cover liabilities of the Condominium Unit Owners as a group to a Condominium owner.

(c) Worker's Compensation insurance to meet the requirements of the law.

(d) Such other insurance that the Board of Directors of the Association shall determine from time to time to be desirable.

15.3. Premiums. Premiums on insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association as a Common Expense. The funds necessary to cover any deductible amount under an insurance policy against which a claim is made shall be a common expense.

15.4. Share of Proceeds. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association and the Condominium unit owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds covering property losses shall be paid to the Board of Directors of the Association. The duty of the Board of Directors shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and hold the proceeds in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated in this instrument and for the benefit of the Condominium unit owners and their mortgagees in the following shares:

(a) Proceeds on Account of Damage to Common Elements. An undivided share for each unit owner, such share being the same as the undivided share in the Common Elements appurtenant to his unit.

(b) Condominium Units. Proceeds on account of damage to units shall be held in the following undivided shares:

(1) When an individual Building is to be restored: For the owners of damaged Condominium units in proportion to the cost of repairing the damage suffered by each Condominium unit owner, said cost to be determined by the Association.

(2) When an individual Building is not to be restored, A share for each Condominium unit owner in said Building equal to their share in the Common Elements.

(c) Mortgages. In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to a unit, the share of the unit owner shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the unit owner as their interests may appear; provided, however, that no mortgagee shall have any right to determine or participate in the determination as to whether any damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, and no mortgagee shall have any right to apply or have applied to the reduction of a mortgage debt any insurance proceeds except distributions of such proceeds made to the unit owner and mortgagee pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the mortgagee shall have the right to apply or have applied to the reduction of its mortgage debt any or all sums that insurance proceeds are insufficient to restore or repair the building to the condition existing prior to the loss and additional monies are not available for such purpose.

15.5. Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Board of Directors shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners in the following manner:

(a) If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the proceeds shall be paid to defray the cost thereof as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such cost shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of, and may be enforced by, any mortgagee of a Condominium unit.

(b) If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damage for which proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of, and may be enforced by, the mortgagee of a unit.

15.6. Determination to Reconstruct. If any part of the Condominium property shall be damaged by casualty, the determination as to whether or not to reconstruct shall be made in the following manner:

(a) Common Elements. If the damage is only to Common Elements the damaged property shall be reconstructed unless it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be terminated.

(b) Damage to Units. If the damage is to Units, the property shall be reconstructed unless Units to which more than 70% of the Common Elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Directors to be untenable. In that event, the property will not be reconstructed and the Condominium will be terminated, unless, within 60 days after the casualty, Unit Owners owning Units to which at least 75% of the Common Elements are appurtenant agree in writing to such reconstruction or repair.

15.7. Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed Agent for each Unit owner and for each owner of any other interest in the Condominium property to adjust all claims arising under the insurance policies purchased by the Association and to execute and deliver releases upon the payment of a claim.

15.8 Assessments. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction by the Association, or if, at any time during reconstruction or upon completion of reconstruction, the funds for the payment of the costs of reconstruction are insufficient, assessments shall be made against Unit Owners in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs. Such assessments for damage to Units shall be in proportion to the costs of reconstruction of their respective Units. Such assessments on account of damage to Common Elements shall be in proportion to the Unit Owner's shares in the Common Elements.

ARTICLE 16 Amendments

Except as elsewhere provided, this Declaration may be amended in the following manner:

16.1. Notice. Notice of the subject matter of the proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of meeting at which the proposed amendment is considered.

16.2. Resolution of Adoption. A resolution adopting the proposed amendment may be introduced by the Board of Directors or by the members of the Association. Directors and members not present in person or by proxy at the meeting considering the amendment may express their approval or disapproval in writing, providing such approval or disapproval is delivered to the Secretary of the Association at or prior to the meeting. Except as elsewhere provided approval of the amendment must be by not less than two-thirds (2/3) of all of the Board of Directors and by not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the votes of the entire membership of the Association; PROVIDED HOWEVER, that in the event the amendment is for one or more of the purposes set forth below, not less than one-half (1/2) of all of the Board of Directors:

(1) To correct misstatements of fact in this Declaration or its Exhibits, including, but not limited to, the correction of errors in the legal description of the real property or in the surveys thereof. If said Amendment is to correct this Declaration so that the total of the undivided shares of Unit Owners in either the Common Elements, Common Surplus or Common Expense shall equal 100 percent, the owners of the Units and the holders of liens or encumbrances on the Units for which modifications in the shares are being made shall also approve the amendment.

(2) To change boundaries between Units in the manner elsewhere stated, providing the amendment is signed and acknowledged by the owners, lienors and holders of mortgages of the Units concerned.

(3) To adopt amendments of Article 15 that are reasonably required by insurers or mortgagees of the Condominium Property or Units.

Until the Unit Owners are entitled to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, this Declaration may be amended only by all of the Directors, provided, however, that such amendment shall not increase the number of Units as set forth in this Declaration nor encroach upon the boundaries of the Common Elements.

16.3. Proviso. Provided, however, that no amendment shall (i) discriminate against any Unit Owner nor against any Unit or class or group of Units unless the Unit Owners so affected shall consent, (ii) change any Unit nor decrease the share in the Common Elements appurtenant to it, or increase the owner's share of the Common Expenses, except as provided in this Declaration with respect to future phases, if any, unless the record owner of the Unit and all record owners of liens thereon shall join in the execution of the amendment. No amendment shall be valid which changes or modifies Articles 15 or this paragraph of this Declaration unless the record owners of all mortgages upon the Condominium or Units shall join in the execution of the amendment or consent thereto by separate instrument.

16.4. Execution and Recording. A copy of each amendment shall be attached to a certificate in recordable form signed by the president or vice president and secretary of the Association setting forth that the amendment has been duly adopted. Said Certificate and amendment shall be effective when it and a copy of the amendment are recorded in the public records of Alachua County.

ARTICLE 17 Termination

The Condominium may be terminated in the following manner in addition to the manner provided in the Condominium Act:

17.1. Destruction. In the event it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the building and improvements shall not be reconstructed because of major damage, the Condominium will be thereby terminated without further agreement.

17.2. Agreement. The Condominium may be terminated by the approval in writing of all Unit Owners and by all record owners of mortgages thereon. Alternatively, if the proposed termination is submitted to a meeting of the members of the Association, the notice of which meeting sets forth the proposed termination, and if approval of the owners of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the Common Elements and of three-fourths (3/4) of the record owners of all mortgages on the Units are obtained in writing not later than 30 days from the date of such meeting, then the Unit owners approving termination shall have an option to buy all Units of the other owners for a period ending on the sixtieth day from the date of such meeting. Such approvals shall be irrevocable until the expiration of the option, and if the option is exercised, the approval shall remain irrevocable. Such option shall be upon the following terms:

(a) Exercise of Option. The option shall be exercised by delivery or sending by registered mail to each of the record owners of the Units to be purchased the following instruments:

(1) A certificate signed by the president or vice president and secretary of the Association certifying that the option to purchase Units owned by persons not approving termination has been exercised as to all of such Units. Said certificate shall state the names of the Unit Owners exercising the option, the Units owned by each and the Units being purchased by each purchaser.

(2) An agreement to purchase on the terms herein stated signed by the purchaser whereby the purchaser agrees to purchase the unit of the owner receiving the notice.

(b) Price. The purchase price for each Unit shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and purchaser within 30 days from the delivery or mailing of such agreement. In the absence of such agreement, then the fair market value shall be determined by two real estate appraisers selected by the seller and purchaser who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the Unit.

(c) Payment. The purchase price shall be paid in cash or terms agreed to by purchaser and seller.

(d) Closing. The sale shall be closed within 30 days following the determination of sale price.

(e) Termination. The closing of purchase of all the Units subject to such options shall effect a termination of the Condominium without further act except the filing of the Association certificate hereafter required.

17.3. Certificate. The termination of the Condominium in either of the foregoing manners shall be evidenced by a certificate in recordable form signed by the president or vice president and the secretary of the Association setting forth the facts effecting the termination, and the termination shall become effective when recorded in the public records of Alachua County.

17.4. Shares of Owners After Termination. After termination of the Condominium, Unit Owners shall own the Condominium Property and all assets of the Association as tenants in common in undivided shares, and their respective mortgagees and lienors shall have mortgages and liens upon the respective undivided share of the Unit Owners. Such undivided shares of the Unit Owners shall be the same as the undivided shares in the Common Elements appurtenant to the Owners' Units prior to termination.

17.5. Amendment. This Article 17 cannot be amended without consent of all Unit Owners and all record owners of mortgages on Units.

ARTICLE 18 Miscellaneous Provisions

18.1. Severability. The invalidity in whole or in part of any covenant, restriction, section, subsection or sentence of this Declaration and the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

18.2. Subsequent to the filing of this Declaration, the Association may, together with other condominium associations and others, purchase and/or acquire and enter into leaseholds, memberships, and other possessory or use interests in lands or facilities to provide for the enjoyment, recreation and other use or benefit of the unit owners; provided, however, that such action shall not be taken without the approval of a majority of the total membership of the Association and the approval of a majority of the holders of institutional first mortgages constituting liens on the various units. The expenses of ownership, rental membership fees, operations, replacements and other undertakings in connection therewith shall be common expenses.

18.3. Compliance and Default. Each Unit Owner shall be governed by and shall comply with the terms of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto and any amendments thereto. Failure of a Unit Owner to comply therewith shall entitle the Association or other Unit Owners to the following relief in addition to the remedies provided by the Condominium Act.

(a) Negligence. A Unit Owner shall be liable for costs and expenses of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by said owner's act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of said owner's family, guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent that such costs and expenses are not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. A Unit Owner shall pay to the Association the amount of any increase in its insurance premiums occasioned by said Owner's use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of a Unit, its appurtenances, or of the Common Elements.

(b) Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged failure of a Unit Owner to comply with the terms of the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorneys' fees as may be awarded by the court.

(c) No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or any Unit Owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provisions of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

18.4. Encumbrance of Future Phases, if Any. This Declaration shall not constitute a lien or encumbrance on the real property described as being part of proposed future phases, all as more particularly outlined in Article 9 hereof, unless the real property comprising such future phase or phases is formally submitted as being part of this Condominium, all as more particularly provided in this Declaration and the provisions of the Condominium Act.

6. The survey dated April 16, 1985, shows Unit 11A next to Unit 12 and shows Unit 11 B next to Unit 10, but this is in error. The designations of 11 A and 11 B on the survey were transposed. Unit 11 B should have been next to Unit 12 and Unit 11 A should have been next to Unit 10.

7. There is not any Unit 29 reflected on any of the surveys for Phase I or Phase II of Thornebrook Village, a Condominium.

SURVEYOR'S AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF FLORIDA
COUNTY OF ALACHUA

Before me, a notary public, personally appeared N. Monroe Hazen, Jr., the undersigned, herein referred to as "Affiant", who being by me first duly sworn, on oath, says:

1. He is a Florida Registered Land Surveyor, Certification No. 3398.
2. He prepared the condominium surveys for Thornebrook Village, a Condominium, for which the Declaration of Condominium was recorded in Official Record Book 1570, Page 1558, of the Public Records of Alachua County, Florida.
3. The survey of the land and a graphic description of the plat plan and the improvements constituting Phase I of the condominium was recorded in Condominium Exhibit Book 1, Page 76, of the Public Records of Alachua County, Florida.
4. The survey of the land and a graphic description of the plat plan and the improvements constituting Phase II of the condominium was recorded in Condominium Exhibit Book 1, Page 92, of the Public Records of Alachua County, Florida. However, on the date of the survey, March 20, 1985, only the building containing Units 9 to 14 was substantially completed.
5. The remaining units in Phase II were completed and a final survey, dated April 16, 1985, was recorded in Condominium Exhibit Book 1, Page 93, of the Public Records of Alachua County, Florida. In the survey, there is a line upon which it is written that the "work north of line not completed." This line and those words are there in error. The buildings, units, and common elements shown north of the line had been completed as of April 16, 1985.

OR 1798 PG2852
OK

2. Recorded in Condominium Exhibit Book 1, page 93 of the Public Records of Alachua County, Florida, is a survey of the land and a graphic description of the plot plan and the improvements constituting Phase II of the Thornebrook Village, a Condominium, identifying the buildings, units, and common elements and their respective locations and approximate dimensions. There are two (2) units designated as "11A" and "11B". The survey shows that Unit "11A" is next to Unit "12" and Unit "11B" is next to Unit "10", but this is an error; the letters designating "11A" and "11B" are transposed. The letters "A" and "B" are hereby switched such that the survey will show that Unit "11B" is next to Unit "12" and Unit "11A" is next to Unit "10" as per the surveyor's affidavit attached as Exhibit "B".

3. Recorded in Condominium Exhibit Book 1, page 93 of the Public Records of Alachua County, Florida, is a survey (the "Survey") of the land and a graphic description of the plot plan and the improvements constituting Phase II of the Thornebrook Village, a Condominium, identifying the buildings, units, and common elements and their respective locations and approximate dimensions. In the Survey, there is a line upon which it is written that the "work north of the line not completed." Those words are there in error; the buildings, units, and common elements shown above that line have been completed as per the surveyor's affidavit attached as Exhibit "B".

4. Article 9.3 of the Declaration stated that Unit 29 would have a certain number of votes and would own a certain percentage of the common elements. However, Unit 29 was never shown as an existing unit on the condominium survey. All reference to Unit 29 in the Declaration is hereby deleted and there shall not be a Unit 29.

5. The Third Amendment to the Declaration of Condominium was recorded in Official Record Book 1603, page 1027 for the purpose of dividing Unit 24B into two (2) units designated "24B1" and "24B2". The survey attached as Exhibit "A" and recorded in Official Record Book 1603, page 1026 incorrectly labels the two units. The survey is amended to provide that Unit 24B1 is the unit next to Units 24-A and 25-A with dimensions of 14.5' x 49.0' and that Unit 24B2 is the unit next to Unit 24-C with dimensions of 26.33' x 49.6'. The number of votes and the undivided interests in the common elements of each new unit shall remain the same as provided for in the Third Amendment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Association has set its hand and seal the day and year first written above.

BYLAWS
THORNEBROOK VILLAGE MAINTENANCE, INC.

(A Corporation Not For Profit Under The Laws of the State of Florida)

ARTICLE I

1. These are the ByLaws of THORNEBROOK VILLAGE MAINTENANCE, INC., a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, hereinafter called "Association." The Association has been organized for the purpose of administering the operation and management of THORNEBROOK VILLAGE, a condominium, to be established in accordance with the Condominium Act of the State of Florida by the recording of a Declaration of Condominium with respect to the following described property, situated, lying and being in Alachua County, Florida, to-wit:

See attached Schedule of Property.

2. The office of the Association shall be at the condominium property in Gainesville, Florida, or such place as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time.

3. The fiscal year of the Association shall be from January 1 to December 31; however, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to adopt a different fiscal year at such time as the Board deems advisable.

4. As used herein, the term "Developer" shall mean and refer to THORNEBROOK DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION. For convenience, these bylaws may sometimes be referred to as the "bylaws"; the articles of incorporation of the Association as the "articles"; and the declaration of condominium for the condominium as the "declaration." The other terms used in these bylaws shall have the same definitions and meaning as those set forth in F.S. Chapter 718, The Condominium Act (the Act), as well as those set forth in the declaration and the articles, unless provided to the contrary in these bylaws, or unless the context otherwise requires.

ARTICLE II

Membership, Voting, Quorum, Proxies

1. The qualifications of members, the manner of their admission to membership and termination of such membership, and voting by members shall be set forth in Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, the provisions of which said Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation are incorporated herein by reference.

2. At meetings of the members, a quorum shall consist of persons present in person or by proxy, entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the entire membership. The acts approved by a majority of the votes present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the acts of the members, except when approval by a greater number of members is required by the Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Act.

3. The vote of the owners of a Unit owned by more than one person or by a corporation or other entity shall be cast by the person named in a certificate signed by all of the owners of the Unit and filed with the secretary of the Association, and such certificate shall be valid until revoked by subsequent certificate. If such a certificate is not on file, the vote of such owners shall not be considered in determining the requirement for a quorum or for any other purpose.

4. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. Each proxy shall set forth specifically the name of the person voting by proxy and the name of the person authorized to vote the proxy for him. Each proxy shall contain the date, time and place of the meeting for which the proxy is given. If the proxy is a limited proxy, it shall set forth those items that the holder of the proxy may vote and the manner in which the vote is to be cast. The proxy shall be effective only for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawfully adjourned meetings. No proxy shall be valid for a period longer than 90 days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given, and it may be revoked at any time at the pleasure of the unit owner executing it. The proxy shall be signed by the unit owner or owners (if more than one) or by the appropriate officer or partner of a corporation or partnership or other designated person mentioned in paragraph 3. above, or the duly authorized attorney-in-fact of that person or persons (provided the power of attorney is filed with the secretary of the association). The proxy shall be filed with the secretary before or at the meeting for which the proxy is given.

5. Approval or disapproval by the owner of a Unit on any matter, whether or not the subject of an Association meeting, shall be by the same person designated in the above described certificate.

ARTICLE III

Annual and Special Meetings of Membership

1. The annual members' meeting shall be held at the office of the Association at least once each calendar year at a time designated by the Board of Directors, for the purpose of electing directors and transacting any other business authorized to be transacted by the members.

2. Special Members' Meetings shall be held whenever called by the president or vice-president or by a majority of the Board of Directors. Special meetings must be called by such officers upon receipt of a written request from members of the Association owning not less than 10% of the Units.

3. Written notice of all members' meetings, regular or special, shall be given by the president or vice-president or secretary of the Association, or other officer of the Association in the absence of such officers, to each member; and such notice shall be written or printed and shall state the time and place and object for which the meeting is called. Such notice shall be given to each member not less than fourteen (14) days or more than sixty (60) days prior to the date set for such meeting. Unless a member waives in writing the right to receive notice of the annual meeting by mail, the notice shall be sent by mail to each member, and the post office certificate of mailing shall be retained as proof of such mailing. If presented personally, receipt of such notice shall be signed by the member indicating the date on which said notice was received by him. Additionally, written notice of such meeting shall be posted conspicuously on the Condominium Property at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of said meeting. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice, and such waiver when filed in the records of the Association, whether before, at, or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. The provision of this section, as applicable, shall be modified by paragraphs 4, 5, 6 & 7 of this Article III. If any members' meeting cannot be organized because of a lack of quorum or because the greater percentage of the membership required to constitute a quorum for particular purposes has not attended, wherever the latter percentage of attendance may be required, as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Declaration of Condominium, the members who are present, whether in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting until a quorum or the required percentage of attendance, if greater than a quorum, is present. The time and place to which the meeting is adjourned shall be announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken and a notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the condominium property as soon thereafter as may be practical stating the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned.

4. Notice of Budget Meeting. The board of directors shall mail a notice and a copy of the proposed annual budget to the unit owners not less than 30 days before the meeting at which the board will consider the budget.

5. Notice of Meeting to Consider Excessive Budget. If a budget adopted by the board of directors requires assessment against the unit owners for any calendar year exceeding 115% of the assessment for the preceding year, the board; on written application of 10% of the Unit Owners, shall call a special meeting of the Unit Owners within 30 days, on not less than 10 days' written notice to each unit owner.

6. Notice of Meeting to consider recall of board member. A special meeting of the unit owners to recall a member or members of the board of directors may be called by 10% of the unit owners giving notice of the meeting as required for a meeting of unit owners, and stating the purpose of the meeting.

7. Within sixty (60) days after Unit Owners other than developer are entitled to elect a member or members of the Board of Directors, the Association shall call and give not less than thirty (30) days nor more than forty (40) days notice of a membership meeting to be held for the purpose of electing such new director(s). Such meeting may be called and notice given by any Unit Owner if the Association shall fail to do so in the time required.

8. Not later than sixty (60) days after Unit Owners other than the developer elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, a membership meeting shall be held for the purpose of allowing the developer to relinquish control of the Association to the members and to deliver to the Association the property of the Unit Owners and of the Association held by or controlled by the developer, including but not limited to, all items listed in Section 718.301, Florida Statutes.

9. At members' meetings, the president shall preside, or in his absence, the vice-president shall preside, or in the absence of both, the membership shall select a chairperson.

10. The order of business at annual members' meetings and, as far as practical, at all other members' meetings, shall be as follows:

- a) Call of the roll and certifying of proxies.
- b) Proof of notice of meeting or of waiver of notice.
- c) Reading of minutes.
- d) Reports of officers.
- e) Reports of committees.
- f) Election of directors.
- g) Unfinished business.
- h) New business.
- i) Adjournment.

11. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, until the developer has completed all of the contemplated improvements and has closed sales of all of the Units, or until one (1) year from the date the Declaration of Condominium is recorded, or until the developer elects to terminate his control of the Condominium, whichever shall occur first, the proceedings of all meetings of members of the Association shall have no effect unless approved by the Board of Directors.

12. Minutes of all meetings of members shall be kept in a businesslike manner and shall be available for inspection by the members and Board members at all reasonable times.

13. Action by members without a meeting. Unit Owners may take action by written agreement without a meeting, as long as written notice is given to the unit owners in the manner prescribed elsewhere in these bylaws appropriate to the subject matter to be agreed on, unless that notice is waived as provided in these bylaws. The decision of a majority of the unit owners, or a larger vote as otherwise may be required by the Act, the declaration, the Articles or these bylaws (the decision to be evidenced by written response to be solicited in the notice), shall be binding on the membership, provided a quorum submits a response. The notice shall set forth a time period within which responses must be made by the members.

ARTICLE IV

Directors

1. The affairs of the association shall be managed initially by a board of three directors selected by the developer. When unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect a majority of the directors, the board shall be composed of any odd number of directors that the unit owners may decide. The number of directors, however, shall never be less than three. Other than those selected by the developer, directors must be either unit owners; tenants residing in the condominium; officers of a corporate unit owner; or partners of a partnership unit owner. No director (except those selected by the developer) shall continue to serve on the board after he ceases to be a unit owner or tenant residing in the condominium.

2. Election of directors, other than directors appointed by developer, shall be conducted in the following manner:

a) Election of directors shall be held at the annual membership meeting.

b) Nominations shall be made from the floor of such meeting.

c) The election shall be by written ballot (unless dispensed of by unanimous consent) and by a plurality of the votes cast. Each member or proxy holder shall be entitled to cast the number of votes set forth in Article 9 of the Declaration of Condominium for each Unit owned, for each director to be elected; provided, however, there shall be no cumulative voting.

d) Vacancies in the Board of Directors occurring between annual meetings of members shall be filled by a majority of the remaining directors except as to vacancies created by removal of directors by members. Any director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next election of directors by the members irrespective of the length of the remaining term of the vacating director.

e) Any director, except those selected by the Developer, may be removed by concurrence of a majority of the votes of the entire membership at a special meeting of the members called for that purpose. The vacancy in the Board of Directors so created shall be filled by the members of the Association at the same meeting. If more than one director is subject to recall, there shall be a separate vote on the question to remove each director.

f) Notwithstanding anything herein contained, so long as the developer is entitled to appoint any director of the Association, the developer shall have the right to remove any director appointed by it, and to fill any vacancy created by such removal or the death, resignation or inability to serve further of any director originally appointed by it.

b) Majority. Unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the board of directors at the earliest of:

i) three years after 50% of the units that ultimately will be operated by the association have been conveyed to purchasers; or

ii) three months after 90% of the units that ultimately will be operated by the association have been conveyed to purchasers; or

iii) when all the units that will ultimately be operated by the association have been completed, some of them having been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others being offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business; or

iv) when some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business.

c) Developer member. The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of directors as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least 4% of the units that will ultimately be operated by the association, if that number shall be fewer than 500 units, and 2% if that number shall be more than 500 units.

d) Election. Within 60 days after the unit owners, other than the developer, are entitled to elect a member or members of the board of the directors, the association shall call a meeting of the unit owners to elect the member or members of the board of directors. The association shall give not less than 30 days nor more than 40 days notice of such a meeting. The meeting may be called and the notice given by any unit owner if the association fails to do so.

e) Relinquishment of control. Either before or not more than 60 days after the time that unit owners other than the developer elect a majority of the members of the board of directors, the developer shall relinquish control of the association and the unit owners shall accept control. Simultaneously, the developer shall deliver to the association all property of the unit owners and of the association held or controlled by the developer, including but not limited to those items specified in the Act.

f) Compelling compliance. In any action brought to compel compliance with F.S. 718.301 regarding transfer of association control and election of directors by unit owners other than the developer, the summary procedure provided for in F.S. 51.011 may be employed, and the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

g) Early transfer. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prevent the developer from transferring control of the association to unit owners other than the developer before the occurrence of the events described in this section.

4. Each director's term of service shall extend until the next annual meeting of the members and thereafter until his successor is duly elected and qualified or until he is removed in the manner provided in 2(e). The members, however, at any annual meeting after the developer has relinquished control of the association, and in order to provide a continuity of experience, may vote to create classes of directorships having a term of one, two or three years, so that a system of staggered terms will be initiated.

5. Any director may resign at any time by sending or personally delivering a written notice of resignation to the association, addressed to the secretary. The resignation shall take effect on receipt by the secretary.

unless it states differently. Any board member elected by the unit owners who is absent from more than three consecutive regular meetings of the board, unless excused by resolution of the board, shall be deemed to have resigned from the board of directors automatically, effective when accepted by the board. Any board member more than 30 days delinquent in the payment of an assessment shall be deemed to have resigned from the board, effective when the resignation is accepted by the board of directors.

6. The organizational meeting of a newly elected Board of Directors shall be held not more than ten (10) days after their election, at such place and time as shall be fixed by the directors at the meeting at which they were elected, and no further notice of the organizational meeting shall be necessary except as set forth in paragraph ___ of this Article IV.

7. At least one regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held annually and shall be held immediately following the annual membership meeting and at the same location. Notice of regular meetings shall be given to each director in writing personally or by mail, telephone, or telegraph, at least seven (7) days prior to the day named for such meeting.

8. Special meetings of the directors may be called by the president and must be called by the secretary at the written request of two-thirds (2/3) of the directors. Not less than three (3) days notice of the meeting shall be given to each director in writing, personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

9. Any director may waive notice of a meeting before, at, or after the meeting, and such waiver shall be deemed to be equivalent to the giving of notice. Attendance by any director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting, except when attendance is for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called.

10. A quorum at directors' meetings shall consist of a majority of the entire Board of Directors. The acts approved by a majority of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the acts of the Board of Directors as required by the Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or the Act.

11. If, at any meeting of the Board of Directors, there is less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting, until such time as a quorum is present. At any adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called, may be transacted without further notice.

12. The presiding officer of directors' meeting shall be the president; and if absent, the vice-president shall preside. In the absence of such presiding officer, the directors present shall designate one of their number to preside at such meeting.

- b) Proof of due notice of meeting.
- c) Reading of minutes and disposal of any unapproved minutes.

14. Minutes of all meetings of the directors shall be kept in a business-like manner and be available for inspection by Unit Owners and Board members at all reasonable times.

15. All Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to all Unit Owners, and the secretary of the Association shall conspicuously post a notice to Unit Owners, notifying them of an upcoming meeting of the Board, at least forty-eight (48) hours before such meeting, except when an emergency meeting of the Board is required. No unit owner, however shall be entitled to participate in the meeting unless specifically invited to do so by the Board.

16. Emergency meetings of the Board of Directors may be held by the directors conferring with each other by telephone. In such event, the signature of a director on the minutes of any such meeting shall conclusively establish said director's presence at, and joinder in, such meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, and unless a contrary vote is indicated, shall establish said directors' vote in favor of actions approved by the Board during such meeting.

17. Directors shall not be entitled to any fees or compensation for their services as directors, other than reimbursement for direct expenses reasonably incurred in the discharge of their duties.

18. All of the powers and duties of the Association existing under the Condominium Act, Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws should be exercised exclusively by the Board of Directors, representatives appointed by the Board, its agents, contractors or employees, subject to approval by the members only when such approval is specifically required by appropriate documents. Such powers and duties shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, the following:

c) Management Control. To contract the maintenance, management or operation of Condominium property, and to delegate to the manager all powers and duties of the Association except such as are specifically required by the Declaration of Condominium or these Bylaws to have approval of the Board of Directors or the membership of the Association. No such management contract shall be construed to be invalid by reason of the Association's delegation or assignment of its rights, duties, privileges or responsibilities as set forth in the Condominium Act or Declaration.

d) Enforcement. To enforce the terms and conditions of the Declaration and the rules and regulations as adopted from time to time; to impose fines on unit owners in such reasonable sums as they may deem appropriate, not to exceed $500.00, for violations of the declaration, the articles, these bylaws and the rules and regulations, by owners or their tenants. The board may collect those fines as an assessment in one or more installments. No fine shall be imposed until the offending party (which shall always include the unit owners) has been given written notice of the violation and an opportunity to appear and be heard before the board of directors.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. The executive officers of the Association shall be a president, who shall be a director; a vice-president, who shall be a director; a treasurer and a secretary, all of whom shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors and who may preemptorily be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the directors present at any duly constituted meeting. Any person may hold two or more offices, except that the president shall not also be the secretary. The Board of Directors shall, from time to time, elect such officers and designate their powers and duties as the Board shall find to be required to manage the affair of the Association. A vacancy in any office shall be filled by the Board of Directors.

2. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. He shall have all of the powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of president of an Association including, but not limited to, the responsibility to serve as chairman of all Board meetings and members' meetings, the power to appoint committees from among the members from time to time as he may in his discretion deem appropriate, and to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Association.

3. The vice-president shall, in the absence or disability of the president, exercise the powers and perform the duties of the president. He shall also generally assist the president and exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by the directors.

4. The secretary shall keep the minutes of all proceedings of the directors and the members. He shall attend to the giving and service of all notices to the members and directors, and such other notices as may be required by law. He shall have custody of the seal of the Association and shall affix the same to instruments requiring a seal, when duly signed. He shall keep the records of the Association, except those of the treasurer, and shall perform all other duties incident to the office of secretary of an Association and as may be required by the directors or president. If so directed by the Board of Directors, the duties of secretary may be filled by a manager employed by the Association.

5. The treasurer shall have custody of all of the property of the Association, including funds, securities and evidences of indebtedness. He shall keep the assessment rolls and accounts of the members; keep the books of the Association in accordance with good accounting practices; make provision for collection of assessments, and all other duties incident to the office of the treasurer. No officer who is a designee of the developer shall receive any compensation for his services as an officer. Nothing herein shall be construed so as to prohibit or prevent the Board of Directors from employing any director or officer as an employee of the Association at such compensation as the Board shall determine, nor shall anything herein be construed so as to preclude the Board from contracting with a director or officer or any such corporation in which a director or officer of the Association may be a stockholder, officer, director or employee for the managements of the Condominium for such compensation as shall be mutually agreed between the Board and such officer or director.

ARTICLE VI

Fiscal Management

The provisions for fiscal management of the Association, set forth in the Declaration of Condominium and Articles of Incorporation, shall be supplemented by the following provisions:

1. The Association shall maintain separate accounts under the following classifications as shall be appropriate:

a) Current expenses, which shall include all receipts and expenditures within the year for which the budget is made, including a reasonable allowance for contingencies and working funds, except expenditures chargeable to reserves or to additional improvements.

b) Reserve amounts classified as appears below. Any or no amount may be budgeted for said reserve in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors.

i) Reserve for deferred maintenance, which shall include funds for maintenance items which occur less frequently than annually.

ii) Reserve for replacement, which shall include funds for repair or replacements required because of damage, depreciation or obsolescence.

iii) Betterments, which shall include the funds to be used for capital expenditures for additional improvements or additional personal property which may be a part of the common elements.

c) Within 60 days after the end of each fiscal year, the board of directors shall mail or furnish by personal delivery to each unit owner a complete financial report of actual receipt and expenditures for the previous 12 months.

2. The Association shall maintain an assessment roll which shall be maintained in a set of accounting books in which there shall be an account for each Unit. Such account shall designate the name and address of the owner or owners, the amount of each assessment against the owners, the dates and amounts in which assessments come due, the amounts paid upon the account, and the balance due upon assessments.

3. The Board of Directors shall adopt a budget and an assessment notice for each fiscal year that shall include the estimated funds required to defray the common expenses and to provide and maintain funds for such reserves as may be established. The budget shall be adopted at a special meeting of the board called for that purpose at least 45 days before the end of the fiscal year. The adoption of the budget shall comply with the requirements hereinafter set forth:

a) A copy of the proposed budget of common expenses shall be mailed to each Unit Owner not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which the budget will be considered, together with a notice of the meeting indicating the time and place of such meeting.

b) If a budget adopted by the board of directors requires assessment against the unit owners in any fiscal year exceeding 115% of the assessment for the previous year, the board, on written application of 10% of the unit owners shall call a special meeting of the unit owners within 30 days. The special meeting shall be called on not less than ten days written notice to each unit owner. At the special meeting, unit owners shall consider and enact a budget by not less than a majority vote of all unit owners. Provisions for reasonable reserves for repair or replacement of the condominium property, nonrecurring expenses and assessments for betterments to the condominium property shall be excluded from the computation in determining whether assessments exceed 115% of similar assessments in the previous year.

c) Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, the Board of Directors may, in any event, propose a budget to the Unit Owners at a meeting of members, or by writing, and if such budget or proposed budget be approved by the Unit Owners at the meeting or by majority of their whole number by a writing, the budget shall be adopted.

d) As long as the developer is in control of the board of directors, the board shall not impose an assessment for any year greater than 115% of the previous year's assessments without approval of a majority of all unit owners.

4. Assessments against the Unit Owners for their share of the items of the budget shall be made annually and in advance for the fiscal year, on or before thirty (30) days preceding the commencement of the fiscal year for which the assessments are made. Such assessments shall be due in equal installments, payable on the first day of each month of the year for which the assessments are made. If an annual assessment is not made as required, an assessment shall be presumed to have been made in the amount of the last prior assessment, and monthly installments on such assessments shall be due upon each installment payment date until changed by an amended assessment. In the event the annual assessment proves to be insufficient, the budget and assessments may be amended at any time by the Board of Directors. Unpaid assessments for the remaining portion of the fiscal year for which an amended assessment is made shall be payable in as many equal installments as there are full months of the fiscal year left as of the date of such amended assessment, each such monthly installment to be paid on the first day of the month, commencing on the first day of the next ensuing month. Provided nothing herein shall serve to prohibit or prevent the Board of Directors from imposing a lump sum assessment in case of any immediate need or emergency.

5. Special Assessments. Special assessments, if required, shall be levied and paid in the same manner as heretofore provided for regular assessments. Special assessments can be of two kinds: (i) those chargeable to all members in the same proportions as regular assessments to meet shortages or emergencies, to construct, reconstruct, repair or replace all or any part of the common elements (including fixtures and personal property related thereto) and for such other purposes as shall have been approved by the members at a duly convened meeting; and (ii) those assessed against one member alone to cover repairs or maintenance for which such member is responsible and which he has failed to make, which failure impairs the value of, or endangers the common elements of the Condominium, or which are for expenses incident to the abatement of a nuisance within his Unit.

6. Remedies and Acceleration of Assessment Installments upon Default; Lien. If a Condominium Unit Owner shall be in default in the payment of an installment upon an assessment for a period of ten (10) days, the Board of Directors may impose a late fee of Ten and No/100 Dollars ($10.00) and/or accelerate the remaining installments of the assessment upon notice to the Condominium Unit Owner, and the then unpaid balance of the assessment shall be due upon the date stated in the notice but not less than ten (10) days after the mailing of such notice to him by registered or certified mail, whichever shall first occur. In the event of any default by a Unit Owner in the payment of any assessment, the Association shall have all rights and remedies provided by law, including, but not limited to, those provided by the Condominium Act, and the liability of the Unit Owner shall include reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by the Association incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of its lien, including attorneys' fees and court costs on any appeal. If the Association elects to enforce its lien by foreclosure, the Unit Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the Condominium Unit pendent lite, to be fixed by the Board, and the Association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect same. Nothing herein contained shall bar a suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments without waiving the lien securing the same.

7. Recognizing that it is extremely difficult to adopt a budget for each fiscal year that exactly coincides with the actual expenses during the year, the Board of Directors shall report to the Unit Owners at the annual meeting of such owners, the amount, if any, by which assessments for the preceding fiscal year have exceeded the expenditures of the Association. Such excess may be applied against the following year's assessment or to the reserve accounts.

8. The depository of the Association shall be such bank or banks as shall be designated from time to time by the directors and in which the monies of the Association shall be deposited. Withdrawal of monies from such accounts shall be only by checks signed by such persons as are authorized by the directors.

9. Fidelity bonds may be required by the Board of Directors for all persons handling or responsible for Association funds in such amount as shall be determined by the Board. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the Association.

ARTICLE VII

Parliamentary Rules

Roberts Rules of Order (latest edition) shall govern the conduct of corporate proceedings when not in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws, or with the Statutes of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VIII

Roster of Unit Owners and Mortgagees

Each Unit Owner shall file with the Association a copy of the deed or other instrument showing his ownership, together with a copy of any mortgage on his unit and any satisfaction of that mortgage. The association shall maintain these documents in a suitable binder for reference as may be required in the exercise of its powers and duties.

ARTICLE IX

Compliance and Default

1. Violations, notice, actions. In the case of a violation (other than the nonpayment of an assessment) by a unit owner of any of the provisions of the Act, the declaration, the articles, these bylaws or any lawfully adopted rules and regulations, the association by direction of its board of directors may transmit to the unit owner by certified mail, return receipt requested, a notice of the violation. If the violation shall continue for a period of 30 days from the date of the notice, the association shall have the right to treat the violation as an intentional and material breach of the provision cited in the notice. It then, at its option, may take the following actions:

- a) File an action to recover for its damages on behalf of the association or on behalf of other unit owners.
- b) File an action for injunctive relief requiring the offending unit owner to take or desist from taking certain actions.
- c) File an action for both damages and injunctive relief.

A unit owner may bring an action against the association for damages, injunctive relief, or both, if the association fails to comply with the provisions of the Act, the declaration, the articles, these bylaws or the rules and regulations.

2. Attorneys' fees. In any action brought pursuant to these provisions, the prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

3. No waiver of rights. Neither a unit owner nor the association may waive a provision of the Act if that waiver would adversely affect the rights of a unit owner or the purposes of the provision, except that unit owners or board members may waive notice of specific meetings in writing.

ARTICLE X

Arbitration of Internal Disputes

Internal disputes arising from the operation of the condominium among unit owners, the association and their agents and assigns may be resolved by voluntary binding arbitration. Each party to the dispute first must agree to the arbitration process and, in such case, the arbitrator's decision will be final. If judicial proceedings are taken after arbitration, the arbitrator's final decision shall be admissible in court. Any party may seek enforcement of the arbitrator's decision in a court of competent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE XI

Liability Survives Membership Termination

Termination of membership in the association shall not relieve or release a former member from any liability or obligation incurred with respect to the condominium during the period of membership, nor impair any rights or remedies that the association may have against the former member arising out of his membership and his covenants and obligations incident to that membership.

ARTICLE XII

Priorities in Case of Conflict

In the event of conflict between or among any of the following, the order of priorities shall be, from highest priority to lowest:

1. The declaration
2. The articles
3. The bylaws
4. The Act
5. The rules and regulations

ARTICLE XIII

Defective Condominium Documents

The association or a unit owner may petition the circuit court having jurisdiction in the county in which the condominium property is situated to correct an error or omission in the declaration or any other documents required to establish the condominium that affects its valid existence, and which errors or omissions are not correctable by the amendment procedures in the declaration or the Act. In any case, after three years from the filing of the declaration, it shall be deemed to be effective under the Act to create a condominium, whether in fact it substantially complies with the mandatory requirements of the Act or not.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendments to Bylaws

Amendments to these Bylaws shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

1. Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed by a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association or upon vote of a majority of the Unit Owners, whether meeting as members, or by written instrument, signed by them.
2. Upon any amendment or amendments to these Bylaws being proposed by said Board of Directors or members, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be transmitted to the president of the Association who shall thereupon call a special joint meeting of the Board of Directors of the Association and the membership for a date not sooner than twenty (20) days or later than sixty (60) days from receipt by such officer of the proposed amendment or amendments, and it shall be the duty of the secretary to give to each member written or printed notice of such meeting in the same form and in the same manner as the notice of the call of a special meeting of the members, as herein set forth.

3. In order for such amendment or amendments to become effective, the same shall be approved by an affirmative vote of the majority of the entire membership of the Board of Directors and by an affirmative vote of the members owning not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Units in the Condominium. Thereupon such amendment or amendments to these Bylaws shall be transcribed and certified by the president and secretary of the Association.

4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an amendment signed by the owners of all the Units shall become immediately effective.

5. At any meeting held to consider such amendment or amendments to the Bylaws, the written vote of any member of the Association shall be recognized if such member is not in attendance at such meeting or represented thereat by proxy, provided such written vote is delivered to the secretary of the Association at or prior to such meeting.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no amendment shall discriminate against any Unit Owner nor against any unit or class or group of units unless the Unit Owners so affected consent. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act, the Articles of Incorporation or any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium. No amendment shall be adopted without the consent and approval of the Developer so long as he shall own two or more condominium units in the Condominium, and be holding said units for sale in the ordinary course of business, and if the effect of the amendment would be to assess the Developer for capital improvements or if the amendment would impair the ability of the Developer to sell said units.

7. These Bylaws shall be deemed amended in those particulars as may be required to make them consistent with the provisions of the Act, as it may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE XV

Contracts, Checks, Deposits and Funds

1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the Association, in addition to the officers so authorized by these Bylaws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Association, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

2. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts or orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidence or indebtedness issued in the name of the Association shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the Association, and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.
